

When two or more foreigners make a joint investment and the total investment amount is not less than KRW 100 million, is this recognized as FDI?

Every month, Invest Korea provides answers to some frequently asked questions submitted by foreign-invested companies in Korea and potential investors.

When two or more foreigners make a joint investment and the total investment amount is not less than KRW 100 million, can this be recognized as foreign direct investment (FDI)?

It is not recognized as foreign direct investment. When two or more foreigners make a joint investment, the amount invested by each person should be not less than KRW 100 million (Article 2(3) of the Enforcement Decree of the Foreign Investment Promotion Act).

If you have further questions please contact

+82-1600-7119

or visit

www.investkorea.org