

What is the process of establishing a corporation in Korea?

Every month, Invest KOREA provides answers to some frequently asked questions submitted by foreign-invested companies in Korea and potential investors.

Q.

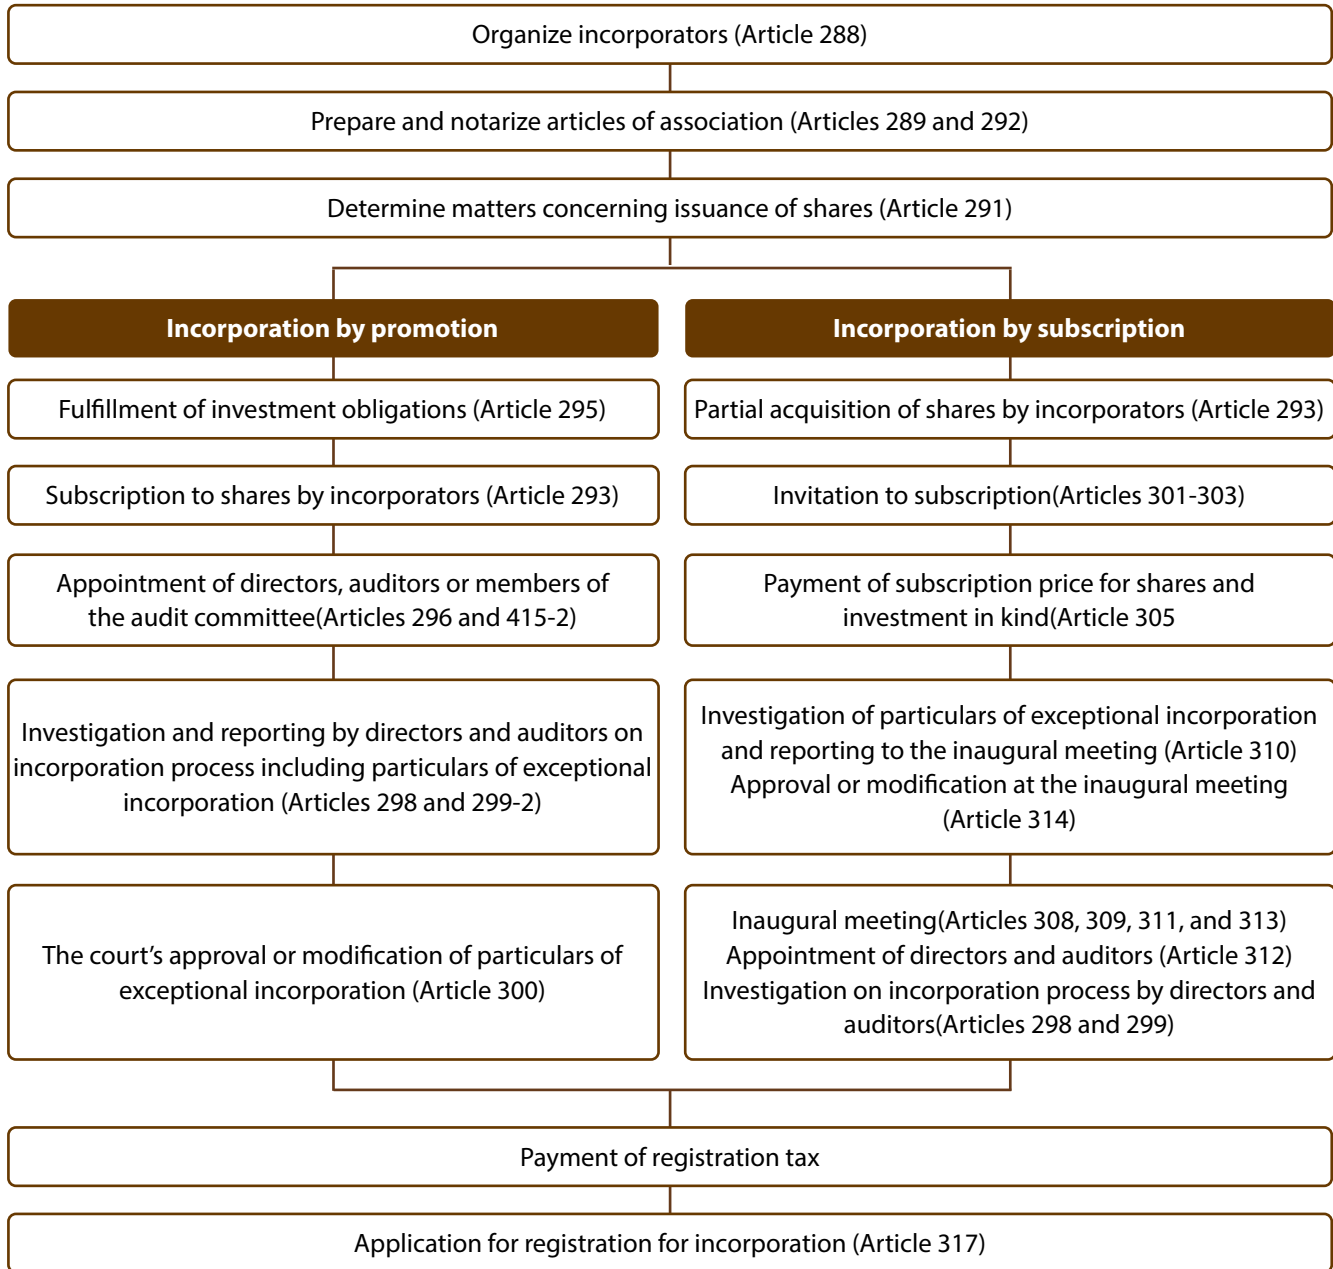

What is the process of establishing a corporation in Korea?

A.

There are four types of corporations—general partnership company, limited partnership company, stock company, limited company and limited liability company—that can be established under the Commercial Act of Korea. As a stock company represents an absolute majority, the process of establishing a stock company is explained below (the “Act” refers to the Commercial Act).
